Dog Friendly Accommodation

HotelGuide dog friendly pampered pooch

In France, small dogs have always been agreed and accepted in virtually any rather than its owner goes. Can now be extended to cities worldwide and is especially true of hotels in the high-end market.

There are two main reasons for this. A growing number of customers who want to take your dog to maximize the pleasure of the holiday. This is a huge market - about 62 million people in Latin own dogs and 29 million of them take their dogs with them when they travel. The other factor is that many owners feel guilty about putting your dog in the kennel. This reflect the way dogs are now seen more as part of the family, rather than a single pet.

NUMBER Crunch

A survey conducted on behalf of a hotel chain came with some surprising results. 76% of respondents said they are more loyal to a hotel chain was prepared to accommodate their dogs - even if you were taking your dog on vacation! 16% admitted that they had, at one time or other contraband to his dog in a hotel that pets are company!

WHAT CAN MY DOG expect from a hotel?

Most dog-friendly hotels offer basics such as food and water. Others add nice touches like a gift on arrival or custom nametags. The more expensive the hotel, the luxuries that your dog can wait indulge in. You will be provided with toys, leashes and collars, poop scoops and even videos for your dog to look.

Dogs can now get organic chicken Roasted fillet of Aberdeen Angus and room service. Some hotels offer dog foods that have been developed with the help of a veterinarian - especially to help your dog with the stress of traveling! The hotel concierge will organize dog walkers and pet sitter, if you are planning to spend some time away from your dog. A of the most amazing things are offered in a package pampered pooch is the use of a "dog translator" so that customers can better communicate with fangs!

Dogs love BOYFRIEND!

If you go for a pedicure relaxing dog can be at your side and that one too. In the hotel room toiletries are becoming more popular. Why not treat your dog consented to some highlights, lowlights or French braid? Cleaning teeth and massage, are offered.

THE TOP TEN dog-friendly U.S. cities and Canada are:

1. Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada.
2. San Francisco, California
3. Chicago, Illinois
4. Boston, Massachusetts
5. Austin, Texas
6. Seattle, Washington
