Luxury Dog Friendly Accommodation

Dog friendly accommodation in Australia and around the world has become the latest trend.

As few as five years ago, finding dog friendly accommodation was extremely difficult. This made taking your dog along with you on your holiday a major undertaking! Many either didn't bother, due to the lack of dog friendly accommodation, or chose to put their dogs into boarding kennels while away.

Now it is possible to take your dog with you to all sorts of places! Dog friendly accommodation in Australia, and in fact, around the world, now ranges from basic caravan parks right up to luxury hotels. No longer is your dog considered to be a second class citizen, in many dog friendly hotels, dogs are now royally catered for! There are even dog friendly hotels that have extended their services to include services and facilities specifically for your dog!

One of the more lavish places to take your pet on a dog-friendly holiday is the Hughendon Boutique hotel in New South Wales. Opposite the dog friendly park, Centennial Parklands, this is one of the new breed of dog friendly hotels that offers "pet friendly rooms". They even have designated dog friendly alfresco dining areas where your dog is allowed to accompany you while you eat!

Other lovely dog friendly holiday destinations are the Marcoola Surf Club Beach House & the Coolum Frangipani house in Queensland. Both of these lovely houses are within a short walk of local dog friendly beaches. Both boast excellent facilities for the whole family and are located near to plenty of tourist attractions.

As the number of people wishing to take dog friendly holidays continues to increase, these are the types of accommodations which are likely to become more readily available. So enjoy!
